

SPRING TODDLER PLAY GROUP

Play HELPS a child...

This 5-week group session will provide semi-structured play-based opportunities to your child in order to facilitate targeted skills including: appropriate arousal levels through sensory-based play, social-emotional skill building, play initiation and engagement, and socialization. A safe, sensory-rich environment will be available to your child as he/she explores through imagination, manipulation, gross motor, and socialization opportunities while strengthening their spatial/body awareness and sensory processing with the guidance of a skilled occupational therapist. This group requires parental involvement to provide parents with strategies to support these skills in your child.
